- Chair Reports
 - PAL Basketball – much discussion on staffing of gym, gate, concession stand, dealing with unruly fans – coaches need to designate a parent as supervisor for every game – final numbers of 170, down by ~20 (19 teams to 16 teams), some new parents for coaches.
 - Microsoccer – season is over, went very well
 - Teeball – nothing for now
 - Flag Fball – done, worked well, lot of positive feedback on using soccer complex, down some this year
 - PAL Fball – 3-3, 4 seed in playoffs, playing Gross, hope to having numbers up for next season (5 kids short of two teams)
 - PAL Vball – seasons wrapping up, one of 4th grade teams took 2nd, older kids have tourneys starting this week
 - We are hosting a few non-St. Pat's games up here this weekend
 - Some equipment will go to under stage for storage after this weekend
 - Follow up on 2nd grade volleyball
 - CYSL Soccer – down to remaining week, ~30% games rained out
 - A few new goals and new nets needed
 - Sign up in January, chair wants to raise dues to $80
 - Cheerleading – 29 cheerleaders, practice time is tough in mornings, cheering for the canned food drive next week, at all football games

- Midwest Impressions to send invoice to athletic committee
 - K-2nd Bball – plenty of kids, coaches already volunteering,
 - PAL Track – nothing for now
 - Baseball and softball – baseball and softball signups coming soon, to end of January
- 8th grade concession worker's supervision follow-up – Kami
 - Tim Hogan did say we should have someone present for our liability purposes. We need to have adult presence (whether that's volunteers, parents, something).
- 3rd grade basketball – initial interest from Spooner, need buy-in from other managers, but Dr. Peters is in Asia. Goal is to shoot for 2020-2021 season
 - PAL to start 3rd grade league, may need host gym for some games so they get gates
 - Do we try to get in 3rd grade teams yet this year?
- Ball field dugouts, benches, and backstops – Carrie to work on backstops in next couple of weeks – any update on Eagle scout project and work with Brad Fisher?
 - Scott and Brad Classen are going to cover the dugouts as his Eagle scout project
- Krejci Soccer Complex – trim/cut trees – Todd/Adam
 - $2,200 to cut front row of trees
